

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

ORIGINAL

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

CASE NO. 16-20781

Plaintiff,

HON. MATTHEW F. LEITMAN

v.

Offense: 18 U.S.C. § 32(a)(1),
Destruction of Aircraft or Aircraft
Facilities

D-1 JOHNATHAN TAFOYA-
MONTANO,

Maximum Penalty: 20 years

Defendant.

Maximum Fine: Not to exceed $250,000

Mandatory Supervised Release: Up to 5 years

RULE 11 PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant
Johnathan Tafoya-Montano and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count One of the Information, which charges him with Title 18, United States Code, Section 32(a)(1), destruction of aircraft or aircraft facilities.

B. Elements of Offense

The elements of Count One are as follows:

- i. The defendant set fire to, damaged, destroyed, disabled, or wrecked an aircraft;
- ii. The defendant did so knowingly and willfully; and
- iii. The aircraft was in the special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for defendant's guilty plea: On February 1, 2016, the defendant was a steward on America Airlines flight 1418 which departed Dallas, Texas, in route to Detroit, Michigan. As the plane was descending into Detroit, Defendant reported a fire in one of the rear lavatories. Defendant extinguished the fire and the plane landed without incident and all passengers and crew safely disembarked.

The investigation into the fire revealed that the paper towels, in the lavatory, were set on fire. On March 1, 2016, Defendant admitted that he intentionally set fire to the paper towels. Defendant used a Bic lighter to start the fire. As the fire gained intensity, he immediately put it out. The fire, started by Defendant, endangered the aircraft. At the time Defendant started the fire, the airplane was in the special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. The parties agree that the guideline range is 27 to 33 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. If the Court finds:

1. That defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or
2. that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 27 to 33 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

The parties agree that sentence of imprisonment will not exceed the top of the agreed guideline range, as determined under section 2B.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release, if imposed, follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement on supervised release. In other words, the Court may impose any term of supervised release up to the statutory maximum term, which in this case is 5 years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that result from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

The Court must order full restitution to the victim of the offense of conviction. The court will determine who the victims are and their restitution amounts.

4. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

If the Court allows defendant to withdraw his guilty plea for a “fair and just reason” pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(B), defendant waives his rights under Fed. R. Evid. 410, and the government may use his guilty plea, any statement made under oath at the change-of-plea hearing, and the factual basis statement in this plea agreement, against him in any proceeding.

5. Each Party’s Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3.

6. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment does not exceed the top of the guideline range as determined under section 2B, the defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment is at least the bottom of the guideline range as determined under section 2B, the government waives any right it may have to appeal the defendant's sentence.

This waiver does not bar filing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel in court.

7. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

This waiver does not bar filing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel in court.

8. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

9. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

10. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
